Seniors . . .

Anna Gibble

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

If there is anything you wish to know about ice skating, ask Anna.

"Pigtails" is an attractive brown-haired, blue-eyed miss hailing from Mohrsville.

Her fancies are ice hockey, baseball and dogs, especially Irish Setters and terriers.

Her ambition lies in becoming somebody's private secretarial stenographer.

Gloria Wurst

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Gloria, one of the more serious-minded students of the class. "Glo" is fond of dancing and enjoys "cutting a rug" with "Cutie" to the music of Harry James and the singing of Bing Crosby.

Gloria has no definite plans for the future but would like to obtain a secretarial position. May she "pound the keys" to success.

Blanche Hill

Academic. Girl Reserves 12. Muhltohi 12.

Rolling, rolling, over the skating rink is where this curly-haired miss can be found. Jocular and fun-loving, "Peggy" manages to keep her friends in peals of laughter with her mouldy stories or homemade jokes.

"Peg" can be seen strolling the halls exhibiting her brother's "flashy" shirts and bow ties.

Frances Pentz

Academic. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Oh, oh! Here comes the Navy and who is that with them? Why it's Frances Pentz! "Frankie" is a quiet, attractive miss who demands attention—especially from the Navy.

Last summer, Frances worked in a factory making Army socks, but as to the future, her plans are indefinite. The class wishes her success in anything she may undertake.

Gloria Moyer

Academic. Muhltohi 12; Girl Reserves 12; G. A. A. 10, 12; Track 11, 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12.

"Moe" is one of the dashing members of the senior class, rating track as tops.

"Glo's" interests not only center around track, but also include hockey and basketball, not to mention a special interest in a certain lad in the 12-1 home room.

"Blondie's" future ambition is to become a Cadet Nurse.

Fay Walleisa

Academic. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This happy-go-lucky brown-eyed lass is one of the jolly members of the class.

"Shortie" loves the out-of-doors and rates hunting tops. When not chasing rabbits, Fay engages in another favorite pastime which is dancing. She is also quite a mermaid.

To take up dramatics at Lebanon Valley College is Fay's ambition.

Margaret Schweyer

Commercial.

Margaret is one of the smallest and shyest members of the senior class.

She spends most of her time in school preparing her shorthand lesson, for that is her favorite subject.

She likes to do deeds for her many friends and also enjoys talking about her experiences where she works.

After graduation, Margaret wishes to get a secretarial job.

Jane Large

Academic. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

At last you've guessed correctly. This is Jane, who, with the help of her twin sister, has made some of the pupils of Muhlenberg think they are seeing double.

She has a passion for cream-colored convertible coupes, is a fan of Van Johnson, Jose Iturbi, and Frankie.

Jane is planning to attend Cornell University.

Mildred Marburger

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; G. A. A. 10, 11, 12.

"Mim" can usually be seen in the hall with a group of girls having "a good old time" or enjoying herself at the "Stinky."

"Mim," like all sports-minded girls, spends much of her time in the gym, and has participated in all G. A. A. activities, excelling in hockey.

Mildred has only one plan for her future, that is to become a Wave.

Frances Kochel

Academic. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12; Band 12; Orchestra 12; Badminton 12.

"That red is too dark. Take a smaller brush." You've probably guessed what's going on. Frances is designing another dress. After graduation, Frances intends to study art.

During her senior year she played the bell lyre with the band and orchestra, and played the xylophone for nine years.

Jeanette Gernert

Academic. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Observer 11, 12; National Honor Society 11, 12; Horizon Club 12; Debating 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Who left you out?" Yes, you've guessed it, it's Jeanette and her favorite saying.

"Gertie" took part in the senior class play and the senior operetta.

Jeanette would like to prepare for her future in textile merchandising by attending some college.

Shirley Woomert

Academic. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Music, poetry and traveling are only a few of the favorites of this reddish-blonde, green-eyed miss who can usually be found working in the library.

Shirley, being one of the more athletic members of the class, rates baseball as tops. She also likes swimming, hunting and fishing.

After graduation she intends to enter the Cadet Nurse Corps.

Betty Jane Kemmerling

Academic. Chorus 11; Horizon Club 12; Muhltohi 12.

Betty Jane, a tall, slim girl with blue eyes and brown hair, is one of the more serious-minded members of the senior class.

While she isn't busy in school or earning money behind a candy counter, "B. J." is devoting her thoughts to an admirable lad in the air forces.

In the future, "B. J." would like to become a nurse.

Rita Fabiani

Academic. Cheerleading 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Rita, a lively brown-eyed miss
Is always smiling
Talking politics is a pastime
Actively participates in sports
Faithfully fulfills her duties
Anxious to attend Bucknell
Basketball games are "tops"
Is popular with both sexes
Artistically inclined
Nicknamed "Smiley"
Is bound to be a success.

Alice Wert

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Alice is a tall, dark-haired, pleasant miss who spent some of her time selling stamps and bonds at the stagedoor.

You can often find her roller skating with a certain "Johnny" at the Arena Gardens.

She rates typing her favorite subject and intends to use some knowledge in this field. She would like to become either a typist or secretary.

Mae Steele

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This jolly miss served during her senior year as secretary to Mr. Gerberich.

Most of her spare time is spent with the Kenhorst Drum and Bugle Corps as a majorette (that is when she isn't with "Gerry"). Skirts and sweaters rate tops with Mae.

In the future, Mae wants to go to hairdressing school.

Joanna George

Home Economics. Girl Reserves 12.

Dear audience, behold! One of the members of the "Silent Bunch" is now in our midst. "Jo" positively hates to get up in the morning. Of course this has nothing to do with the frequent trips to New Jersey.

In the future, Joanna hopes to beautify some unfortunate people by becoming a beautician. Good luck, Joanna! May you "accentuate the positive and eliminate the negative."

Jeanette LeVan

Commercial. Track 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12.

Jeanette, the artist, can usually be seen sitting in the 12-2 home room making sketches of almost anything, particularly girls.

Whizz! Who was that? Oh, that was probably "LeVan" hurrying home for her favorite dish of mashed potatoes and sauer kraut or steak — when she can get it!

Jeanette has made no definite decision as to her future. In whatever she decides to do, we wish her success.

Rose Horyczko

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

STOP! LOOK!—It is not necessary to listen very long.

"Rosie" is always ready for any kind of fun, and when there isn't any to be found, rely on her to start some. She is frequently found "jitterbugging."

In the future, "Blondie" expects to be some doctor's secretary. Cooking for a certain Marine also interests her. Poor Marine!

Leeona Kadeck

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12. Muhltohi 12.

Lee, the head majorette of the Kenhorst Drum Corps, has worked herself up to becoming the State Champion of Pennsylvania.

Her main interest is photographic modeling, however, don't be surprised if you see her flying over the house tops in a P-40.

Later, Lee intends to try cooking for a certain Marine.

Esther Liss

Academic. Observer 11, 12; Archery 12; Badminton 12; Debating 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

If your pet dislike is breakfast cereal, why not do as Esther does — substitute soup as your main breakfast dish?

Esther served as headline editor for the Observer and could often be heard saying, "Where is your head?"

To become a nutritionist is Esther's ambition for the future.

Madeline Nickliss

Commercial. Horizon Club 12; Cheerleading 11, 12; Chorus 11, 12; Badminton 12; Muhltohi 12.

When you hear the exclamation "That's tough!" look around and you will see a brown-eyed miss giving someone her "sympathies."

"Midge" can be seen jitterbugging at dances, but she does not use all her pep, because she is also a cheerleader.

She can "Always" be seen "Together" with two other girls of the senior class.

Sarah Jane Schweitzer

Commercial. Muhltohi 12.

Blonde hair, blue eyes, and one of the quieter members of the class—this is Sarah Jane. She classes her favorites as Harry James, poetry, reading and "a good joke."

Sarah Jane has the distinction of being the youngest member of the class.

Her intention is to obtain a position as a stenographer. The class wishes her luck.

Arlene Fry

Commercial. Muhltohi 12.

"Cutie" Fry is one of the smallest members of the class. If there are any jokes to be told, Arlene is always present.

During her spare time Arlene is usually writing letters to a certain sailor. She adores Bing Crosby and loves to dance to the music of Harry James.

After graduation, Arlene hopes to become someone's stenographer.

Josephine DeSantis

Academic. G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Josie, an active dark-haired miss
Often indulges in sports
Desires to attend Bucknell
Eager to become a linguist
Selects math as favorite subject
Actively engages in school sports
Nicknamed "Jo"
The shortest girl in the class
Is popular with everyone
Success is inevitable.

Erma Seidel

Academic. Muhltohi 12.

Erma is a short, blond-haired, blue-eyed miss who enjoys playing the piano.

Erma is one of the more quiet girls of our class. She says she doesn't bother with the opposite sex, but we wonder who she enjoys writing to in the Army.

Her plans aren't definite but Erma hopes to go to college and become a home economics teacher after graduation.

Hazel Trexler

Academic. Observer 11, 12; Muhltohi 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12; National Honor Society 11, 12.

Yo gusto usted! Das ist recht! and a few more languages and Hazel will have attained her goal—to become a linguist.

Hazel likes to design and sew dresses for her manikin, and play the organ at weddings.

Since Hazel has always had an eye for fashions, her secret ambition is to own an exclusive dress shop on Fifth Avenue, N. Y.

Fern DeHart

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Chorus 12.

This lass formerly attended Reading High but thinks Muhlenberg is "super."

She classes chorus as her best liked subject while cooking rates second.

Fern likes to look through magazines for new hair styles and then try them. This accounts for her eagerness to become a beautician. May her "waves" be permanent.

Louise Erny

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This brown-eyed, quiet miss has an active interest in sports and during her leisure hours can usually be found on a roller skating rink.

Louise's favorite subjects are shorthand and typing. She has a deep interest in someone in the Navy.

After graduation, Louise plans to attend college. The class wishes her success.

Doris Haus

Commercial. G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Hausy," one of the poetic members of the class, rates playing the guitar and writing hilarious poetry as her hobbies.

Doris is interested in all forms of sport. "Hausy," having no confidence in household duties, would like to become a "lady leatherneck." May the "Halls of Montezuma" call her quickly as she goes to fight for them some day.

Fawn Brye

Commercial. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12

Fawn is one of the more humorous members of the class. You can always hear her telling a corny joke, or arguing.

"Fawnie" just loves pie. She eats it till she can't anymore and then eats some more. Splash! Splash! Swimming is Fawn's favorite sport.

Fawn is undecided as to her future but thinks she might like to join the Canadian WACs.

Olivia Large

Academic. Observer 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Five feet two with eyes of blue. To our high school she is new.
Which are you, Nancy or Jane?
Answering that is a pain.

If you ever heard a loud noise in English class, it was just Nancy "quietly" dropping her loafers off of her tired feet.

Nancy hopes to attend Duke University to become a medical technician.

Mae Breitegam

Commercial. Muhltohi 12.

This dark-haired, attractive lass is one of the quiet members of the class while in school.

She is interested in several sports and can usually be found either roller skating or eating, which are two of her pastimes. She also has an interest in the Navy and can be seen writing letters.

After graduation, she plans to be an office worker.

Jeanne Neher

Commercial. Muhltohi 12; Girl Reserves 12; Chorus 12; Observer 12.

Whizz! That was Jeanne dashing into home room with her book, putting a few finishing touches to her latest poem.

She can "Always" be seen "Together" with two other girls of the senior class.

When you hear "ooh's"—"ah's," you can be sure it's "Jeannie" swooning over someone in a raincoat or a sleeveless sweater.

Rita Arnold

Commercial. Muhltohi 12.

Rita is one of the smallest girls in the class. She is a brunette, blue-eyed miss, who is especially interested in a certain Air Cadet.

If you ever get to Reeser's Restaurant and see some shorty dashing around, it'll probably be Rita. When asked where her pep comes from, her answer is, "I don't know, but this is fun!"

She is still undecided as to her future.

Mabel Bower

Academic. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This brown-eyed miss is of the talkative type.

Mabel's favorite pastimes are reading and listening to Harry James.

She considers typing "tops" and football as her major sport.

Mabel is undecided about the future, but we know she will make good.

Irene Bechmann

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12.

"The great skier of South Temple" is this short, blue-eyed miss. Her favorite spot in town is the famous Chinese restaurant, where she can eat chicken chow mein. Irene is usually very happy with lots to talk about. She was the only member of the Commercial section who studied German.

One of Becky's wishes after graduation is to own her own little novelty shop.

Mary Jane Kearney

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Mary Jane is one of the wittier girls in the senior class.

"Sis" croons over the music of Harry James, and also enjoys the singing of Bing Crosby.

In the future, "M. J." hopes to become a private secretary to some high executive. Here's wishing her success.

Shirley Heist

Home Economics. Girl Reserves 12; Swimming 12; Muhltohi 12.

Shirley, one of the shorter constituents, hails from South Temple.

"Shirl" spends most of her time writing letters to a certain young sailor. Because she is fond of dancing, Shirley is often found at the "Y" on Saturday nights.

"Cuz" hasn't any plans for the future. May she "sail" to success.

Kathryn Carl

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Tall, slim and jovial best describe this light-haired senior lass.

Kitty can often be seen in the halls having quarrels with members of the opposite sex, but she likes the fellows, especially a certain Marine.

Typing is her favorite subject and in the future she would like to be either a typist or hairdresser.

Betty Weaver

Academic. Observer 11, 12; Chorus 10; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

"What's that mountain of food?" That's just "Bettina" at her favorite pastime and avocation, namely making and eating "Dagwood" sandwiches.

This more talkative member of the class expects to attend McCanns' School of Business and has her eye on being a medical secretary.

Joan Clarke

Commercial. Band 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Crash, bang—don't get excited folks, it's only "Jo the Kid" coming down the hall. Joan provides entertainment anytime, anywhere.

But there is a serious side to her. She plays the trumpet nicely (?) and is an understanding soul.

Hope to meet you on the road to success.

Arlene Gasser

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Cheerleading 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Ah, there she is! Whenever the word "Tillie" is mentioned, a picture of some uproar comes to our mind, for wherever "Tillie" is, there is bound to be loads of fun.

This energetic miss helped to cheer the basketball team to victory. She has also won many honors in swimming. We will always remember "Till" as being a swell dancer and a good sport.

Catharine Deeds

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Band 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Is this not a picture to demand attention? This blond-haired, hazel-eyed miss is a member of the High School Band.

"Deedsy" is an ardent baseball fan and her secret passion is to be a sports writer or a history teacher. Keep your eyes on "Deedsy," for when she starts on the Sea of Life there will be some splash.

Jean Boltz

Commercial. Muhltohi 12.

When you hear the expression "Oh, sugar" you can be sure to find Jean near by. "Charlie" is one of the more quiet members of the class.

Jean rates skating and bowling as her favorite sports. She also likes to listen to Kay Kyser and eat spaghetti.

After graduation, Jean intends to become a secretary. May she pound the keys to success.

Annette Hartzell

Academic. National Honor Society 11, 12; Observer 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12; Girl Reserves 12; Debating 11, 12.

Now here is a girl who likes to know the whys and wherefores of things, for "Skeeter" is an enthusiastic member of the debating team.

Annette's ambition is to be a legal secretary and in preparation is going to attend a business school.

Thelma Lengle

Academic. Girl Reserves; Observer Staff 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

This "cheerful little ear full" is never around when you want her. She is usually in the Observer room working on the school paper. Journalism takes up most of her time.

After attending college, Thelma's plans are rather indefinite; but with her journalistic abilities we are sure she will go "write" to the top.

Dorothy Reeser

Commercial. Debating 12; Girl Reserves 12; Observer 11, 12; Muhltohi 12; National Honor Society 11, 12.

Dot is about the busiest senior. She can be seen dashing through the halls almost any noon.

Dorothy's interests lie in sports, mainly basketball and baseball. On the other hand, Dotty's pet peeve is people who do not co-operate.

As to the future, she intends to become her father's secretary.

Jean Berg

Commercial. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Click, click, click — you can bet your life that it's Jean cutting stencils. Or, maybe, she can be heard saying, "Hey, Shunky, did you hear the 'Musical Clock'?" Then, with big grins on their faces, they start talking about the sentimental music they heard.

After graduation, Jean would like to become somebody's "stenog."

Martha Klemmer

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This brown-haired, green-eyed girl is known to most of us as Dolly.

Dancing or movies occupy most of her spare time and she's pretty keen on spaghetti and Italian sandwiches.

She just can't resist buying records and she'll tell you that boogie-woogie is "solid."

Lots of luck, Dolly.

June Ludwig

Home Economics. Girl Reserves 12.

One of the more quiet girls in this small, blue-eyed lass who hails from Laureldale.

June rates mathematics as her favorite subject and can often be seen helping others in her home room. Her greatest weakness is sailors.

As to the future, June has made no definite plans, but the class of '45 wishes her success.

Geraldine Deisher

Commercial. G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Observer Staff 11, 12; Chorus 11, 12.

"Gerry," one of the busiest members of the senior class, was secretary of Girl Reserves. She rates Italian sandwiches and French fries as her favorite foods and lists reading poetry as her favorite pastime. She is frequently seen at the movies and simply drools over John Hodiak.

Jane Kohler

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12. Muhltohi 12.

Zoom! — No, that wasn't an airplane—just Jane performing her secretarial duties.

"Squirt" can be found almost anytime in her father's "Jitterbug Joint," or also with a "friend" helping to cheer the basketball team on to victory.

After graduation, Jane hopes to become a private secretary.

Betty Merkel

Home Economics. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Wherever there is music you will find Betty. All her spare time is spent at dances (with Johnny, of course).

"Mert" is the Muhlenberg Representative for Pomeroy's Be-Teen Fashion Board.

Betty sang with the jazz band and would like to sing with an orchestra in the future. She plans to go to Temple University after graduation.

Mary Jane Shunk

Commercial. G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Chorus 11, 12; Muhltohi 12; Badminton 12.

"Boing! a six-footer with a pipe!" If you hear these words you know their source. "Kidding" and her "sense of humor" make her very well liked.

"Shunky" was an active senior, having served as president of the Girl Reserves, manager and referee in G. A. A.

She can "Always" be seen "Together" with two other girls of the senior class.

Jeanne Adams

Commercial. Muhltohi 12; Girl Reserves 12.

"Jeanne with the Light Brown Hair" is one of the fun-making members of the class.

"Clang, clang, clang," went the typewriter, "Bang, bang, bang," went the Navy guns. These two have very much in common with Jeanne.

Even though the Navy occupies most of her time, she wishes to become a typist.

Dolores Cairns

Commercial. Chorus 12; Girl Reserves 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Here is a pretty brown-haired blue-eyed girl from 12-1 who was the secretary of the junior and senior classes.

"Dolly" loves dancing and can often be seen at the "Y" on Saturday nights. She also enjoys listening to "boogie-woogie" records.

"Dolly" hopes to become a private secretary after graduation.

Mary Jane Marbarger

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

Brown hair, brown eyes and a cute smile identifies Mary Jane to everyone. Mary Jane enjoys sports, especially basketball.

"Cutie" keeps a scrapbook of all Muhlenberg sports write-ups which contain some of "Sweetnut's" career in school sports.

Mary Jane hopes to attend Reading Business Institute and become a medical secretary.

Julia Wolfe

Academic. Chorus 10, 11, 12; Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

This attractive, green-eyed lass is quiet, but full of fun and always ready with a witty answer. "B-B" has been chairman of the Girl Reserves Service Committee for two years, and by now she is an expert at selecting gifts for any occasion.

In the future, Julia plans to attend some college.

Gloria Bittle

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Cheerleading 10, 11, 12; Track 11, 12; G. A. A. 11, 12; Bowling Club 12; Swimming 10, 11; Badminton 12.

This tall lass with brown hair and brown eyes is one of the more active members of the senior class.

Gloria, a cheerleader, can be seen and heard at all games.

Gloria plans to enter the Cadet Nurse Corps upon graduation.

Annabelle Reber

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

We have all seen this blithe lass rambling through the halls of Muhlenberg. She holds honors as being one of the keenest jokers.

"Jokie" is always on the "up and up" in the newest songs and fads.

Although Annabelle has her humorous moods, she also is quite serious. Her goal is to become a skilled typist.

Dorothy Ilg

Academic. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12; Debating 12.

Ship ahoy! Navy Full Speed Ahead. So says this pert blonde miss. Any blue-clad boy can find Dot in favor of him. Dottie is always writing letters and is constantly in dire need of stationery. She just loves pastry and candy.

Dorothy has a vague intention of becoming an interior decorator unless some sailor changes her mind.

Gloria Gensemer

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Hey! Do you have any passes for the movie?" That's right, you're right! Gloria is being invaded by half the population of Muhlenberg. "Gensie" is fortunate in receiving a supply of passes for the local theater.

This brown-haired miss of 12-2 rates bookkeeping "tops" and is hoping to become a bookkeeper in the future.

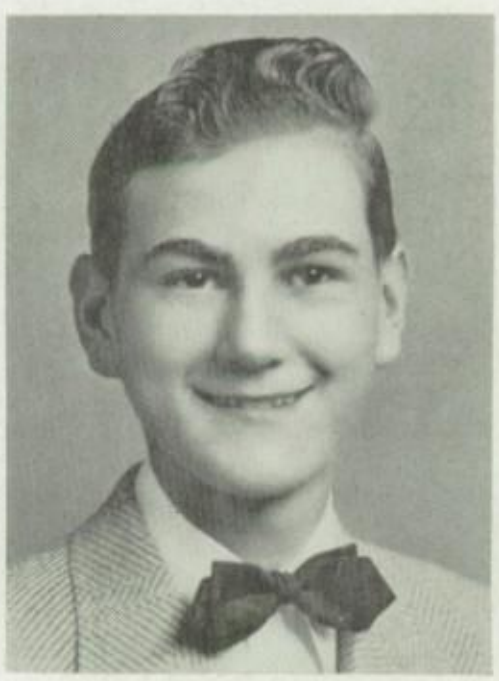
Violet Brenner

Commercial. Girl Reserves 12; Chorus 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Pert, brown-eyed blonde, best describes this active member of the senior class. "Dollie" can usually be seen trampling through the halls with "Deedsy" and "Marbarger."

"Dollie" rates basketball and bookkeeping "tops."

After graduation, "Dollie" longs to become a "Good" stenographer. May she "bloom" onto her way to fortune.



Richard Batz

Commercial.

Richard likes flashy clothes, is popular with all his classmates, and also with a girl of a local town.

His favorite recreation is going to movies and basketball games. He spends most of his time ushering at a local theatre.

In the future he wishes to run his own luncheonette. May luck reign with him through his future business.

Richard Arnold

Industrial.

Richard is another of the more "timid" members of the 12-1 home room.

In spite of his bashfulness, he has not one secret passion, but two.

Most of his spare time is spent working in a local drugstore learning pharmacy. Upon graduation, he would like to become a pharmacist in the United States Navy.

Richard Thomas

Industrial. Basketball 10, 11, 12. Soccer 12; Track 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi, 12.

Look up in the sky . . . it's a bird, it's a plane . . . no, it's Dick Thomas, and he's scored another basket. Dick is one of the most athletically-inclined members of the senior class.

Dick hopes to be an engineer some day. The class of '45 wishes him a "Mary" life and one as long as he is.

E. Winfield Blatt

Industrial. Basketball 12; Muhltohi 12.

Winfield, one of the jolly members of the class, is 5' 5" and weighs an even 200 pounds. Eating is NOT his specialty.

"Bo Bo" can be seen driving a certain Dodge or Chrysler in his spare time.

Winfield was manager of the varsity basketball team. He intends to enter the service and hopes to be an electrical engineer after the war.

Homer Kantner

Academic. Hi-Y 12; Muhltohi 12.

Homer is one of the quieter members of the senior class. He can often be seen in the St. Lawrence Luncheonette pushing the dirty dishes around in his cart. He also can be seen walking the halls with two girls on his arms.

Homer is undecided what he will do after graduation. Whatever field he may choose, the class of '45 wishes him luck.

Harold D. Williams

Industrial. Stage Crew 10, 11; Muhltohi 12.

Tall, dark and mechanically-minded describes "Poley," as Harold is often called by his friends. When you hear a "putt," "bang" and a "swish" you better watch out because it is "Poley" coming down the street about 15 miles an hour in his little jalopy which he built in his spare time.

After graduation he would like to be a mechanic.

Donald Moll

Academic. Hi-Y 12; Soccer 12; Baseball 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Mollie," one of the most lively members of the class, may be seen any morning before school driving his "Model A" on the highways of Muhlenberg Township. "Charger" rates golf as his favorite sport.

"The Mayor of Molltown" expects to attend Wyomissing Polytechnic Institute after graduation.

Paul Dahms

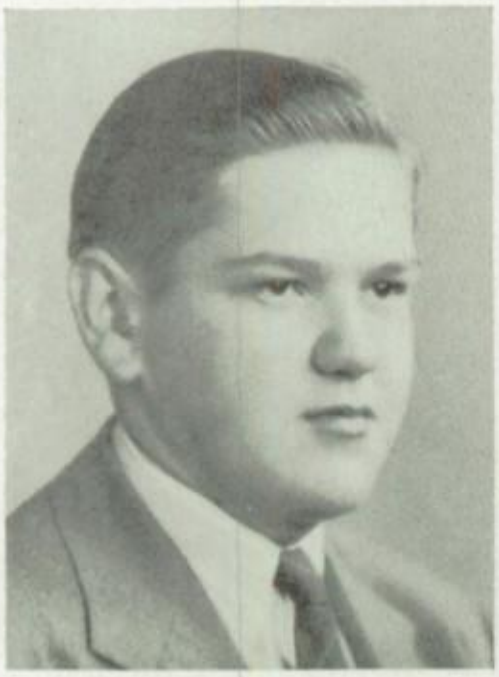
Academic. Muhltohi 12.

Paul is one of the more quiet members of the senior class. In his leisure time he can usually be seen with a blonde named Gloria.

His black hair and blue eyes will describe him to his classmates.

He rates mechanical drawing and chemistry tops. After graduation he would like to take up mechanical engineering.

"May he draw to success."



Stanley Boczar

Academic. Muhltohi 12.

"Stosh" is one of the newer members of the senior class, since he spent only his last two years at Muhlenberg.

Stan, when not playing his accordion in a three-piece orchestra, spends his week ends working at a local restaurant. His weaknesses are blondes, brunettes and redheads.

After graduation, Uncle Sam will call Stanley into service.

Earl Auchenbach

Industrial. Basketball 11; Track 11; Baseball 10, 11.

"Auchy" was asked by Uncle Sam to give up his studies and serve his country, so he enlisted in the Navy in July, 1944.

Earl was awarded a plaque for being Muhlenberg's most valuable athlete for 1943–1944.

May each wave "Auchy" crosses bring him closer to victory and home.

Darvin Ketner

Academic.

"Ducky," one of the more talkative members of the class, can often be seen driving around Temple in a blue "Chevy."

His favorite hobbies are hunting and fishing, and almost anything that centers around the outdoor life.

At present, Darvin is employed by the Fleetwood Hosiery Company. "Twisty" would like to join some branch of Uncle Sam's armed services.

William Moll

Academic. Muhltohi 12; Soccer 12; Track 11, 12; Basketball 11, 12.

This "handsome" fellow hails from Hyde Park.

"Charger" was the goalie on the soccer team, guard on the basketball team, and javelin thrower on the track team.

Bill plans to enter the Marines after he graduates. May you "charge" your way to success.

Homer Carley

Industrial. Baseball 10, 11, 12; Soccer 11, 12; Basketball 10, 11, 12; Track 11, 12.

If you ever have any difficulty in finding "Sweetnut," look for a certain girl named Mary Jane.

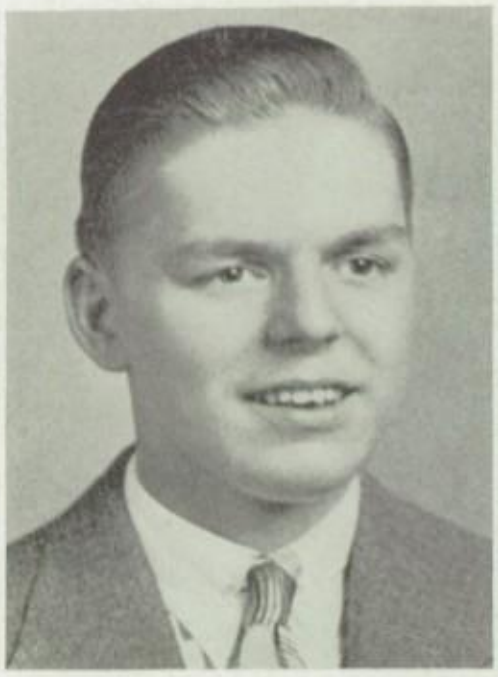
Homer plans to take up a physical education training course at Penn State; that is, if he evades the greeting of Uncle Sam. May the tides of Time be kind to him.

Arthur Weller

Industrial. Stage Crew 10, 11, 12.

Whiz! Swish! There goes Arty tearing the roads apart with his "Chevy." Arty can be seen in his spare time down on the stage rigging curtains up, etc. He also likes to play football with the fellows.

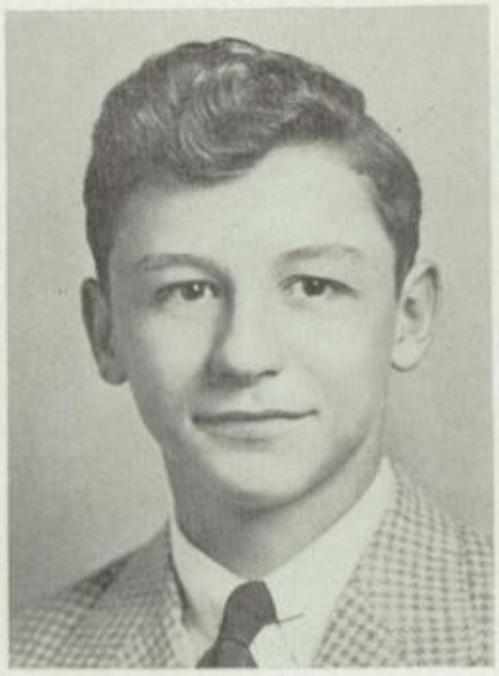
After graduation, Arty plans to don a navy blue uniform. The class wishes him oceans of luck.



Harry Heckman

Industrial. Muhltohi 12.

"Buddy" is one of the more taciturn members of the senior class. Harry can usually be seen browsing around the Madeira Airport. He is studying to become a private pilot. After he has received his diploma, he intends to enter commercial aviation. May "Buddy" burst the clouds of success as he flys through the air with the greatest of ease.



Donald Rothenberger

Academic. Basketball 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12; Soccer 12; Hall Patrol 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Perry" hails from Hyde Park and is one of the more athletically-inclined members of the class. He likes baseball and can be found participating in it whenever time allows. He spends his spare time eating ice cream and looking at pretty girls.

After graduation, Perry plans to join the U. S. Navy.

Miller Ulle

Academic. Chorus 10, 11, 12.

Mi, Mi, Mi. "Oh Susie, listen to that darling voice coming from the music room." "Oh yes, that's Frankie Ulle singing." Well, folks, these are just a few of the remarks made by Miller's admirers.

Miller has sung in many programs, here at Muhlenberg and outside of school.

After graduation, he hopes to attend a college of music and become a singer.

Richard Weinhold

Industrial. Muhltohi 12.

This short, jolly fellow called Dick can be seen with his omnibus, namely a Model A Ford, crowded with students, on the way to school.

During his spare time, Dick works in a photography shop. Since photography is his hobby, he has acquired his own darkroom, equipment and cameras.

Like most of the other seniors, Richard expects to serve in the United States Armed Forces.

John Peipher

Academic. Baseball 12; Hi-Y 12; Muhltohi 12.

"Johnny," one of the well-liked boys of the class, can usually be found with the fairer sex and spends a lot of time with "Pearl."

He rates model airplane building and mechanical drawing "tops." You can also find John jerking sodas at Andrew's.

After graduation he would like to join Uncle Sam's Navy.

Henry Cole

Academic. Band 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12.

"Hen" is one of our more musically-inclined students, playing the trombone and piano.

"Plow" enjoys wearing a lot of flashy clothes, eating hamburgers and pineapple sundaes, and driving his Dad's car.

After graduation, "Plow" would like to go to an art college and become a cartoonist. May he draw his way to success.

Paul Gehrig

Academic. Hall Patrol 10, 11, 12; Mixed Chorus 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

Paul is one of the quiet boys of the class and can be found either playing tennis with his side-kick Bob, or with his girl friend "Jo." Paul has also stuck faithfully to the track team, "eating the cinders" off Kiehl's shoes.

Paul has hopes of entering college after school.

Robert Brumbach

Academic. Swimming 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

This jolly, dark-eyed lad from South Temple adds a lot to the senior class through his bright ideas and jokes.

Bob gained his letter by his earnest work as one of the Muhl's favorite water ducks.

Lank and slender, he cuts a fine figure and is just the right size for a ladies' man.

Bob dreams of seeing the world through a porthole.

Dominic Fioravanti

Industrial. Muhltohi 12.

"Dixie" is a short, blue-eyed blond.

His favorite pastime is playing a guitar with local orchestras. Besides this, this lad tries to imitate Donald Duck between classes and sometimes in classes.

In the future, he plans to attend the Wyomissing Polytechnic Institute for further study in industrial arts.

Donald Linderman

Academic. Band 12; Orchestra 12; Chorus 11, 12.

This handsome, brown-haired lad has never missed a day of school in his high school career. Girls don't bother him because he spends most of his time playing the saxophone and piano. He is also interested in photography.

We wish Donald the best of luck in becoming a draftsman, but Uncle Sam may decide his future for him.

Albert Gaspari

Academic. Soccer 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12.

This husky six-footer is the "baby" of the senior class. He can often be seen driving a blue Ford on the Kutztown Road. "Gus" takes an active part in outdoor sports and relishes gym as the most enjoyable session of school.

Al's main interest is a certain lass at Temple University where he plans to further his studies as a pharmacist.

George Telliho

Academic

George is one of the more bashful members and, incidentally, the only red-haired boy in the senior class.

"Tal" is rarely seen with the opposite sex except in a strictly business matter.

In the future, "Tal" wishes to enlist in the Merchant Marine. May the bachelor of '45 "fish" his way across the waves of success.

Raymond George

Academic. Soccer 11, 12; Track 12; Muhltohi 12.

Ray is one of the handsome boys in the class and is popular with the fairer sex.

He loves to "cowboy" in his father's cars. Ray played center forward on the soccer team and was active in track. He also helps his father at the mushroom house.

Raymond hopes to enter Drexel Institute to study engineering.

Ralph Boyer

Academic. Debating 11; Chorus 10, 11, 12; National Honor Society 11, 12; Observer 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

President of his class,
Seller of yearbooks and tickets,
Singer, swimmer, tennis player,
Scholar of the present,
Minister of the future;
Good luck to you, Spider,
As Time's sands ebb
We'll remember you ever
The man from the web.

Richard Burkey

Academic. Band 10, 11, 12. Orchestra 10, 11, 12.

Science and music add zest to the life of this young man, whose main ambition is to become a chemist.

Richard has played the clarinet in the high school band for five years and the orchestra for four years.

To prepare for his profession "Chick" plans to attend Albright College.

Richard Shadel

Academic. Muhltohi 12.

This lively lad comes from Tuckerton and may be seen participating in many activities.

In the winter, Dick may be seen trapping skunks or traveling along streams inspecting his muskrat traps. Dick's favorite subjects are health and gym, while baseball and basketball rate high among sports. On completing his high school education, Richard hopes to go to some trade school.

Charles Speicher

Academic.

Charlie is one of the more jovial members of the class. Whenever there is something funny going on, there you can find "Speed."

He rates German as his "favorite pastime." He can often be found riding around in Dick's Ford.

In the future, Charlie would like to join the Navy. May each wave be countless steps to success.

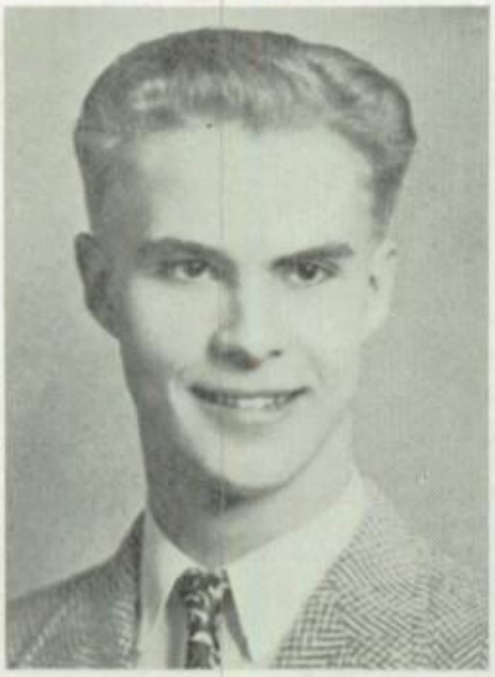
Richard Hartman

Academic. Soccer 11, 12; Track 10, 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12; Basketball 12; Hall Patrol 11, 12; Chorus 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

This short, handsome Laureldale youth is an all-around man in athletics.

Dick is quite popular with the girls, and in his junior year he led the class as president.

His future plans are to enter the Navy.



Harold L. Kremser, Jr.

Academic. Band 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 10, 11, 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12; Dance Band 12; Ensemble 12.

When you hear music about the school Harold is usually the cause, since he plays the piano and the "slush pump."

Harold took part in the senior class play and served as accompanist for Mixed Chorus.

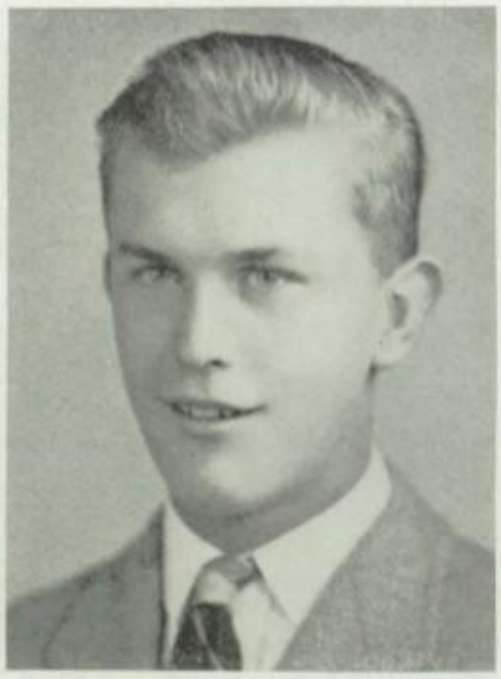
After graduation, Harold plans to attend Eastman Music School or join the Navy.

Frank Luerssen

Academic. Orchestra 10, 11, 12; Chorus 10, 11, 12; Hi-Y 12; Dance Band 12; Ensemble 11, 12; National Honor Society 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

This tall, handsome lad is very popular among his classmates. He is better known as "Truck" and can be seen driving about in a red Pontiac coupe. "Louie" likes to "fiddle" around music.

In the future, he expects to enlist in the Navy.



Heinz Nestler

Industrial. Basketball 11, 12; Swimming 10, 11, 12; Muhltohi 12.

This good-looking fellow is one of the more comical fellows of the senior class and hails from Laureldale. He is popular with the teachers and also his classmates.

He rates swimming, trapping and girls as his favorite pastimes. "Skunkie" can often be seen around Temple pool.

Heinz has his mind set on entering the Marine Corps.

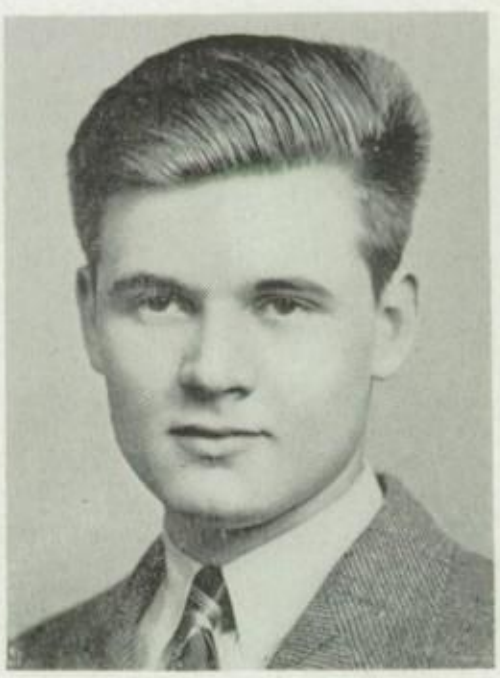
Richard Sechrist

Industrial. Muhltohi 12.

"Ha, ha!" This familiar noise can be heard when "Zeke" is taking part in class discussion.

One of the most humorous and well-liked boys of the class, "Zeke" has a strange habit of "knocking off" from school during hunting and fishing season every year.

"Zeke" hopes to take a course in plastics as preparation for a future occupation.



Wayne Boyer

Industrial. Muhltohi 12.

Wayne is one of the few seniors not having a nickname.

Bowling and roller skating occupy a good deal of his time, while his favorite hobby is photography. He spends his spare time after school tending his rabbits and trapping muskrats.

After graduation, like most other senior boys, he intends to join Uncle Sam's Armed Forces.

James Hevalow

Academic.

If you see a small, chubby, quiet fellow walking through the hall, it is none other than "Jim."

Jim's favorite subject is history and all of his classmates see and hear him arguing with the instructor.

After graduation he plans to join the Navy. If the armed forces don't take him, his other plan is to enter Dickinson College.

Pietro Guidotti

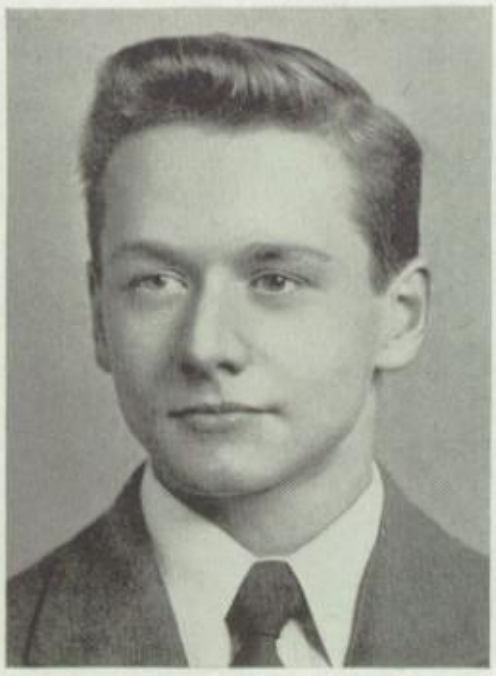
Industrial.

Putt! — Putt! — Putt! Here comes "Pete" in his "Chevy."

Pete, one of the smallest members of the class, spends his spare time by working in a mushroom plant and tinkering around his "crate."

Diminutive Pete is very agile when it comes to acrobatics in gym.

After graduation, Pete will probably enter the Army. The class wishes him luck.



George Hohl

Academic. Muhltohi 12.

"Hohlie," a lively individual, is exceedingly "quiet" and witty.

Although he has rigged his own chemistry "lab" in his home, a lively game of tennis or a long swim will delight him almost any time.

George has leased some of the future by enlisting in the Army Air Forces and is intending to enter the chemistry field later.

Kenneth Dellicker

Commercial.

"Bang, Bang!" It's hunting season and there's Ken, hunting for his yearly quota of rabbits and only hoping someday he'll get a deer.

When not hunting, this lad can be seen playing baseball or football.

In the future, if Uncle Sam does not take him, he would like to own his own farm.

Class History

• • •

Class of '45, which now totals 106, numbered 197 when it entered Muhlenberg as a seventh grade in September, 1939.

During the seventh grade year, 25 present seniors enacted various roles in the operetta, "Christmas Carol."

While in eighth grade the various home rooms built guidance projects. 8A, first-place winner, built a movie production set; 8B, a road construction scene; 8C, oil fields; 8D, a swimming pool, and 8E, a butcher shop. All projects were under the direction of Miss F. A. M. Rahn, teacher of guidance. Annette Hartzell and Ralph Boyer won the eighth grade American Legion awards.

The ninth grade Muhlenberg Woman's Club awards were presented to Ralph Boyer and Jeanette Gernert.

Again in tenth grade several members of the class enacted parts in "Tulip Time," an operetta directed by Miss A. H. Horton, music instructress.

During the junior year, Richard Hartman was class president and led a class of 111, assisted by Homer Carley, vice-president; Delores Cairns, secretary; and Heinz Nestler, treasurer.

Ralph Boyer and Annette Hartzell won the Muhlenberg Junior Woman's Club awards in eleventh grade.

Blue and gray were chosen for the class colors, gardenias and red roses were chosen the class flowers, and "Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers" was the motto selected.

This year the seniors finished their high school career with a bang. One of the earliest events was the class play, "New Fires," presented November 2 and 3 by a cast of fifteen. This was followed by a Minstrel Show and the Senior Prom which was held on May 4. The senior class, consisting of 106 members, was led by Ralph Boyer, president; Homer Carley, vice-president; Delores Cairns, secretary; and Hazel Trexler, treasurer.
